ACEM News (July 10, 2022)

Rev. Paul Chang (CNEC)

Rev. Paul Chang was very grateful that his daughter, Ruth, stayed with him in Singapore for about a week. Ruth and Mark, Rev. Paul's son, will fly over from the United States to visit him in August. They haven't seen each other in person for a few years.

Rev. Chang also expressed his gratitude towards the Vietnamese ministry partners and volunteers who organized the Vacation Bible School for the under-privileged children. In the past two weeks, they have also conducted a two-week "Education Improvement Program" at a new location, the Gia Lai Province, with approximately 100 children attending. Participants in these two events responded well to the gospel. May the seed continue to grow and bear fruit in these children.
