ACEM (September 25)

Rachelle Ho (GO International Canada)

Rachelle is very thankful for the 4-month home leave and now she is back to Cambodia safely. God has answered the prayer. They were able to obtain two connected townhouses for the Home of Love, a new dormitory for the college students in Phen. This new home is not just to accommodate more students, but also to be used as a worship place.

Rachelle has also decided to move in with the students as that she can build a closer relationship with them, and to improve her Khmer language skill. Please pray for the moving day in October, the adjustment with students and staff as they settle in the new home.
