ACEM:

1. Joyce Fok (Go & Share Missions Canada, Cambodia)

Praise the Lord that the new Cambodian school, as well as the special education and learning support centre, are operating well. The teachers pray that the students can come to class every day so that they can follow up on their growth mentally and physically. Some students are regretfully withdrawn from the class by their parents due to the poverty of the family. Pray that God can bring these poor children back to school to continue their education. May God also give wisdom to the teachers when they deal with various student problems. In addition, the school is planning to train local workers to do the management work. Pray for them to find the right person. Please also pray for Joyce's skin problem, and may God heal her and bless her ministry.

2. Valerie & Jiten (Middle East)

Praise the Lord! Valerie, Jiten, and the team have established a football ministry, which attracted approximately 10 teenagers to join. The goal of this ministry is to bring joy, reduce stress, and help teens stay away from negativity around them. They also plan to hold a health seminar and an outreach program for the local families. May the Lord give them the power and wisdom to engage these people to learn more about health. Please also pray for Valerie and Jiten's families, as they are fighting a spiritual battle for their health. May God protect them and heal them.
